

Parks Canada Passes

If you're bringing a vehicle, remember that you need to purchase a parks pass, even if your car is just sitting in a parking lot!

Click the link for a breakdown of park pass fees: <https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/pn-np/ab/banff/visit/pass/tarifs-fees>

You can purchase a park pass at the tollgate when entering the park. Please note that the prices listed are for one day, so you will need to purchase a pass for as many days as your vehicle will be in the park.

If you're interested, you can purchase a Discovery Pass, which allows you unlimited admission for a full year at more than 80 Canada Parks. You can buy it online: <http://www.commandesparcs-parksorders.ca/webapp/wcs/stores/servlet/en/parksb2c/discovery-pass>

YYC to Banff Transportation

If you're flying into Calgary, there are several shuttle bus options that can take you from Calgary Airport (YYC) directly to the Banff Centre. You can pre-book seats on both options.

Airporter

Click here for rates and schedules: <https://banffairporter.com/rates/>

When booking, you will be asked for your flight information and your drop-off point. Be sure to choose Banff Centre (Professional Development Centre) as your drop-off location. Click here to get started: <https://banffairporter.zau.net/data/portals/booking/index.php?id=1&action=Details>

There is a wide range of departure times throughout the day.

Brewster

Brewster is a slightly more luxurious option. Click here for fares: <https://www.banffjaspercollection.com/brewster-express/fares/>
